A Message from Rabbi Jon Adland

With July we begin our 131st year as Temple Israel. Before we move forward, let us take a moment to offer a few thank you's. The first thank you is to Bernice Friedman who, for more than ten years, has led our Temple Israel Sisterhood. Through her leadership and the Sisterhood's generosity our community is greatly enhanced and blessed. Being president is never easy and doing it for so long can be wearing, but Bernice never faltered, led the women forward and prepared our Sisterhood for its transition in leadership to the next generation. Let me add that I truly believe that every woman in our congregation should be a Sisterhood member just as every man should be a Brotherhood member. Please pay your dues and support these organizations. If you want to take the next step and get involved, all the better, but join. Your dues helps support our local Sisterhood and the Women of Reform Judaism-the North American organization with worldwide affiliates—enabling them to do great works. Brotherhood dues allows our men to be generous and support programs at Temple. We all give to so many causes when solicited. I am soliciting each and every Temple member to be a part of these important Temple arms.

Marcia Berke concluded her two years as Temple president. This congregation was blessed to have her as its leader. She was ever-present, available, on top of all the issues and concerns, motivating to new board members, and a wonderful Jewish role-model. Even though we may not be as big as we once were and even though we don't have as many younger people as we once did, a congregation still needs its leader and leadership. I have always believed that members should strive to become leaders of a congregation and that everyone in the temple community should aspire to become a leader. We need you. We need the next generation, too. Thank you Marcia for showing us how to be a leader.

Let me also thank all those whose time on the board has ended, but we look forward to your continuing participation: Dan Charlick, Bernice Friedman, Paul Garfinkle (transitioning from board to Brotherhood president), Dan Jonas, Tom Porter and John Strauss.

We concluded a busy year and we are preparing for next year. Please watch your mail and email. Say yes when asked. Make a reservation when needed. Come to a program and learn or have fun. Temple is what we all make of it together. Don't forget that services are 6 p.m. until early October. Come to a service with a friend, observe Shabbat and then go out for dinner.

Looking forward to seeing all of you soon.

From the President

Marcia Berke embraced our Temple Israel and its membership as her own family. With her executive board and board of trustees Temple thrived in the 2 years of her presidency. I look forward to maintaining that momentum.

Your new executive board composed of myself – President; Shelley Schweitzer, 1st Vice President; Jonathan Wilkof, 2nd Vice President; Greg Luntz, Treasurer; Joan Ortman, Secretary; and the board of trustees – are committed to meeting the ongoing responsibilities of maintaining the strength, vitality and integrity of our Temple Israel mission.

Mission Statement

This congregation shall be known as Temple Israel and is founded to perpetuate the heritage of the Jewish people. Temple Israel of Canton, Ohio is a synagogue which fulfills the three classic functions as a House of Prayer (Beit T'fillah), a House of Study (Beit Sefer) and a House of Gathering (Beit Knesset). Temple Israel, as a member of the Union for Reform Judaism (URJ), shall provide for its members and their children a liberal interpretation of Judaism, and shall give them the opportunity of living Jewish life creatively by encouraging them to confront tradition and make choices and to create new modes of Jewish expression. Temple Israel shall foster the application of the principles of liberal Judaism to personal conduct, family life, and society.

Personal Conduct

Meaning to:

- a) promote a sense of identity with and commitment to the Jewish people and to the State of Israel, b) promote high standards of personal morality and ethical conduct, c) empower the individual as a co-worker with God and to d) promote personal piety.

Family Life

Meaning to:

- a) promote education of children and adults for Jewish growth, b) promote the celebration of life cycle and passage events Jewishly, and c) promote living with the rhythm of the Jewish calendar.

Society

Meaning to:

- a) promote involvement with and support of the Jewish community locally, nationally and internationally, b) actively work for a Godly society of Righteousness and Justice with Compassion and c) be good custodians of God's creation.

I am available if you wish to leave a message with the Temple office (330-455-5197) or by email at footman43@sbcglobal.net .

LifeShare needs to be prepared with staff and supplies so if you plan on attending please contact Debbie Sinopoli at Debbie.sinopoli3@gmail.com or 330-497-2623 by July 22. You may also call Tabitha Seafoss at LifeShare 330-489-1076, extension 4152 with any medical questions or concerns.

Please let friends and family know about this. Let's honor Janie and save some lives—a win-win situation!

Women of Reform Judaism (WRJ)
Update by Sandy Adland,
WRJ Central District President

As an affiliate of WRJ, Temple Israel Sisterhood has access to a vast network of programming, resources, and leadership support based in a lengthy and successful history. By affiliating, the voice of our sisterhood joins together with other sisterhoods worldwide, showing that the power of women organizing to make a difference is limitless and proving that we are truly "stronger together." Please visit www.wrj.org for more information about WRJ and the benefits of our affiliation.

WRJ has a new mission statement! At the recent WRJ Board meeting in NYC which I attended as Central District President, history was made as a new mission statement was adopted to reflect our ever-changing Jewish world. The new mission statement now reads: "Women of Reform Judaism (WRJ) strengthens the voice of women worldwide and empowers them to create caring communities, nurture congregations, cultivate personal and spiritual growth, and advocate for and promote progressive Jewish values."

Temple Israel Sisterhood, as a member of Central District, has many opportunities to connect with other sisterhoods throughout our six-state region, especially those sisterhoods right here in our general vicinity. In coming together, we have the chance to learn best practices from one another, share programming ideas, hear from WRJ and district leaders, and make new friends. Soon, an Area Day will be planned for the sisterhoods of Northeast Area, which include Canton, Akron, Hudson, and Youngstown. Stay tuned for details. Did you know that Central District has a website chock-full of information about our district? To see what's happening throughout Central District, go to www.wrjcentral.org. If you're on Facebook, "like" our Facebook page (WRJ Central).

SAVE THE DATES and mark your calendars for two upcoming and exciting events!

November 4-8, 2015 – WRJ Assembly in Orlando, FL. Featured speakers are Lilly Ledbetter, and Rabbi David Saperstein. For more information and how to register for the WRJ Assembly, visit www.wrj.org.

April 15-17, 2016 – Central District Spring Kallah at Goldman Union Camp Institute (GUCI)
