

Welcome!

Welcome to Temple Israel. We are delighted that you are here to celebrate Shabbat with our community, and hope that you find the Reform liturgy and our music meaningful and inspirational. This handout includes lyrics that are not found in our prayerbook.

Temple Israel's Guiding Principle

"Temple Israel brings its rich history to Canton's Jewish community as a driving force for social and spiritual connections. It is a family that creates a Reform Jewish home that nourishes the soul, inspires the mind, and engages the hands."

Scholar-in-Residence – March 25-26

Save the date for our Shabbat scholar-in-residence, noted author and activist Rabbi Shmuly Yanklowitz. His presentation topics will include:

Shabbat Evening: "How to See the Invisible Right before our Eyes: A Mystical approach to Ethics"

Shabbat Lunch and Learn: "Judaism as a Call to Social Action: Developing our Unique Moral Voice"

Seudah Shlishit (Shabbat Afternoon): "Reform Judaism & Orthodox Judaism: Challenges & Opportunities"

Havdalah Interfaith Program: "Truth vs. Peace: How can we be fervently particularistic and yet fervently universalistic and pluralistic?"

We Shall Overcome (Pete Seeger)

We shall overcome
 We shall overcome
 We shall overcome, some day

Chorus: Oh, deep in my heart
 I do believe
 We shall overcome, some day

We'll walk hand in hand
 We'll walk hand in hand
 We'll walk hand in hand, some day

Chorus

We shall live in peace
 We shall live in peace
 We shall all live in peace, some day

Chorus

Mah yafeh hayom, Shabbat shalom
 Mah yafeh hayom, Shabbat shalom

Shabbat, shabbat shalom; Shabbat, shabbat shalom
 Shabbat, shabbat shalom; Shabbat, shabbat shalom

We shall overcome, some day

V'ahavta (Debbie Friedman)

And thou shalt love the Lord thy God
 With all thy heart, with all thy soul and with all of thy might
 And these words which I command you on this day
 Shall be upon thy heart, shall be upon thy heart
 And thou shalt teach them diligently
 Unto thy children, and thou shalt speak of them
 When thou sittest in thy house,
 When thou walkest by the way and when thou liest down,
 And when thou risest up, and when thou risest up.
 And thou shalt bind them for a sign upon thy hand
 And they shall be for frontlets between thine eyes
 And thou shalt write them on the doorposts of thy house,
 And upon thy gates, and upon thy gates
 That ye may remember and do all of My commandments,
 And be holy unto your God, unto your God, unto your God

Freedom / Mi Chamocha (Michael Hunter Ochs)

Chorus: Mi chamocha ba'elim Adonai
 Mi kamocho ne'edar bakodesh nora tehilot nora tehilot oseh feleh

And the river is wide and the river is deep and the river is standing between you and me and freedom, freedom, but we shall overcome one day.

Chorus
 And the river is fear and the river is hate, and the river is standing 'tween us and the gates of freedom, freedom, but we shall overcome one day.

With a tambourine and a mighty hand across the sea and the desert sand, let the children sing for Miriam: Next year in the promised land. Next year in the promised land. Next year in the promised land.
 Next year in Jerusalem.

Chorus

And the river divides, and the river forgives, and the river's a wall, and the river's a bridge to freedom, freedom, but we shall overcome one day.
 Freedom, freedom but we shall overcome one day.
 Yes, we shall overcome one day.

Blowin' In The Wind (Bob Dylan)

How many roads must a man walk down
 Before you call him a man?
 How many seas must a white dove sail
 Before she sleeps in the sand?
 How many times must the cannonballs fly
 Before they're forever banned?

Chorus: The answer, my friend, is blowing in the wind
 The answer is blowing in the wind

How many years must a mountain exist
 Before it is washed to the sea?
 How many years can some people exist
 Before they're allowed to be free?

How many times can a man turn his head
 And pretend that he just doesn't see?

Chorus

How many times must a man look up
 Before he can see the sky?
 How many ears must one man have
 Before he can hear people cry?
 How many deaths will it take till he knows
 That too many people have died?

Chorus

Lift Every Voice and Sing (James Weldon Johnson)

Lift every voice and sing till earth and heaven ring,
 Ring with the harmonies of Liberty;
 Let our rejoicing rise high as the listening skies,
 Let it resound loud as the rolling sea.
 Sing a song full of the faith that the dark past has taught us, Sing a song full of the hope that the present has brought us, facing the rising sun of our new day begun
 Let us march on till victory is won.

Stony the road we trod,
 Bitter the chastening rod,
 Felt in the days when hope unborn had died;
 Yet with a steady beat, have not our weary feet
 Come to the place for which our fathers sighed?
 We have come over a way that with tears has been watered, we have come, treading our path through the blood of the slaughtered,
 Out from the gloomy past, till now we stand at last
 Where the white gleam of our bright star is cast.

God of our weary years, God of our silent tears,
 Thou who has brought us thus far on the way;
 Thou who has by Thy might Led us into the light,
 Keep us forever in the path, we pray.
 Lest our feet stray from the places, our God, where we met Thee, lest, our hearts drunk with the wine of the world, we forget Thee; shadowed beneath Thy hand,
 May we forever stand.
 True to our God, true to our native land.
